Reason for Recalling the Units:

This recall relates to a packaging closure integrity issue. The decision to conduct the voluntary removal was based on an investigation (identified while exploring potential expansion of product shelf-life beyond 23 months) that revealed a small population (3.8%) of packaged units have an undersized O-ring gland diameter that can affect the O-ring compression when the hard cap is affixed to the packaging tube. This lack of full compression can create a situation where the integrity of the container closure system is compromised potentially impacting the sterile barrier system.

Clinical Impact:

There have been no complaints or adverse events reported where a surgical site infection was identified, with or without pain. Additionally, sterility testing through our routine dose audit program has not identified an instance of sterility failure with these lots.

The action to recall these specific lots is being done out of an abundance of caution.
